

The Old Field Farm Equestrian Book Club 2018

The Old Field Farm Equestrian Book Club has been initiated to better understand the horse- its past, present and future, and a very special place in our culture. Please join us as we begin our effort to learn and share ideas through various published works.

The Annual Book Club Dinner and Meeting will be held in March (TBA).

Select Readings...

Please submit an article, book chapter, or any other publication of great interest for discussion at book club. It can be something you love, disagree with, are fascinated by, or perplexed about. Articles may be submitted to oldfarm@optonline.net by September 1st. The Annual Book Club dinner will be scheduled for October. We look forward to reviewing your submissions! The selected reading will be emailed to those who register for the dinner meeting.
