

Old Field Farm Summer Film 2018

And Mystery Novel Book Signing!

September 7

Gates open at 6:00pm

We thank Michael Ardolino/Realty Connect for his support of this series.

Humphrey Bogart · Ingrid Bergman · Paul Henreid

Casablanca

(1942)

A cynical nightclub owner protects an old flame and her husband from Nazis in Morocco.

Please bring a picnic, picnic blanket, beach chair and flashlight for a nostalgic evening of old fashioned outdoor film.

Each film will be preceded by a brief look back at history as it relates to our film by Town of Brookhaven historian Barbara Russell.

Gates open at 6:00 pm Admission is free.

Please confirm date as the weather may change our schedule.

Contact 631 246 8983 for confirmation information.

Book Signing by local author Thomas Cassidy

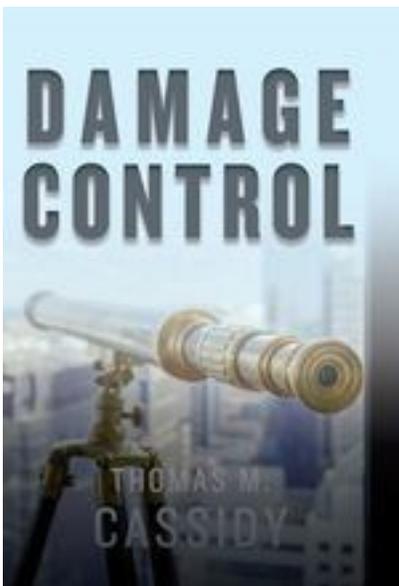

On September 10, 1981, Detective Commander of Manhattan South Homicide, Lieutenant John Patrick Donnellan, gets an urgent call that a famous actor has been found dead in his luxurious penthouse apartment.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Thomas M. Cassidy is a former senior investigator who spent 20 years battling crime for the New State Attorney General. Tom, a member of Mystery Writers of America and has had numerous articles appearing in many newspapers across the United States, including The Washington Post and The New York Times. Tom has appeared on NBC (TODAY), CBS, CNN, PBS, FOX, and many other television and radio programs across the country. He is the brother of the late Hugh J. B. Cassidy, the former owner of Old Field Farm. Tom remains a fan and supporter of our project at Old Field Farm, Ltd. and his brothers legacy.

Books will be available for purchase on site at Movie Night and at Old Field Farm, Horse & Home, Ltd. All Proceeds help the work of Old Field Farm, Ltd.

preserve and operate historic Old Field Farm County Parkland.

Steve Bellone, County Executive